Tracing the meteoric rise of one couple and the violent fall of another against the backdrop of Tampa's infamous Ybor City club district, Kings of 7th Avenue takes an unflinching look at Tampa's multi-ethnic communities to show how the roots of misogyny and abuse have grown so deep that such behavior has been turned into tradition, whether within families or at public events, and how a new generation of women has found a way to tear out those roots and pave a path to a better future.
