The knight explains that once someone remembers the shadow world, he will likely not forget it or the real world again. Both worlds affect each other.

When they enter a prayer meeting in the shadow world, they ride off into battle in the real world. Something is battling the king's men that only an ambassador can defeat. Denzel must teach the inexperienced ambassador that is sent to them for Denzel is the leader of this castle of king's men. Jumping from world to world, Denzel begins seeing how the spiritual and the physical fit together to form one world.
