Catch-26: A Novel Carol Prisant

What if you could be young and carefree again? To be so beautiful you could have any man you wanted? To live your life all over again – but better?

You can!

There's just one catch...

Frannie Turner is a plain, overweight, sixty-six-year-old housewife. Married to Stanley, a self-absorbed retired dentist who hasn't slept in her bed in years. No children to love and be loved by. No exciting career to look back on. Just loneliness and lost dreams. So when the mysterious new hairdresser in town offers her the chance to get everything she's ever wanted, Frannie figures she has nothing to lose -except her soul. And surely, as a stunning twenty-six-year-old singleton in New York, finding true love within the stipulated year should be a piece of cake, not to mention a hell of a lot of fun!

But New York City is no place for the naïve, and Frannie will soon learn just how dangerous a deal with the devil can be...
