Comparaciones odiosas (La quinta columna) (Spanish Edition) Jose María Lizundia Zamalloa

Hay personas que siempre basculan hacia la disidencia, la impugnación de los valores predeterminados como sagrados en cada época, de la mano de un pensamiento propio, ajeno a los paradigmas de lo correcto, y que han estado siempre en la primera fila de los grandes desafíos; este es el caso de José María Lizundia. Por lo general, los juicios de Lizundia chocan con la línea editorial de los medios de comunicación, y al hacerlo, ponen en solfa su fachada ética, en tanto que esos medios sirven a intereses financieros, son la correa de transmisión del poder y los proveedores de la ideología gobernante. A Lizundia le subleva el relativismo cultural y moral de su época y reacciona ante ésta y otras estafas similares asumiendo el ingrato papel de ir en contra del llamado progresismo posmoderno, los nacionalismos pacatos, y el hedonismo que permea la conciencia europea actual. Todos los artículos contenidos en este libro fueron publicados en el Diario de Avisos entre los años 2001 y 2008.
