Canoeing Algonquin Park" is an ideal resource for planning and carrying out a canoe trip in Algonquin Park, or simply dreaming about it. Aside from the route maps and advice, the historical background and natural history will add depth to the experience of paddling through this landscape. It is simply absorbing to browse through, checking out the marginal sketches of park flora and fauna, which are accompanied by succinct explanatory text, and studying the maps."--John A. Stevens: Book critic, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. There are 37 maps, 60 landscape sketches and more than 200 flora and fauna drawings.
