No More: The Battle Against Human Rights Violations (Towards the New Millennium Series) David Matas

The late twentieth century witnessed massive human rights violations. What can be done to stop them? How can the root causes be addressed? The issue of human rights has become the secular religion of our time. Yet violations continue to occur in a gross and flagrant manner. Author David Matas examines examples of human rights violations and suggests what individuals, private organizations, governments, and the UN can do about this worldwide problem. He also focuses on how Canada stands up to international human rights standards and provides a thorough analysis of the contribution of Amnesty International.
