Although over half of America has now become ""blended families"" in recent decades, there is a shocking lack of material for the children of those ""blended families."" Rachel Gray saw this need, and penned the absolutely true story of her own wedding day. This story is told through the eyes of her oldest step-son, Adam. Mrs. Gray has intended to write her children's books as a way to connect to step-children everywhere, by telling the story of her own step-children and their struggles, as well as triumphs. Rachel Gray also wishes to help bond step-parents to their new step-children through her books. From her ""blended family"" to yours, this is the first book in the ""Dear 'S.T.E.P.M.O.M.E.' Series.""
